

About the Fondation ParisTech

The purpose of the Fondation ParisTech, an umbrella foundation recognised by the French State as a public interest organisation, is to contribute to the development and expansion of higher education and scientific and technological research, on the French and European scale. It was created by a decree published on 10 April 2010, an initiative of ParisTech which enjoyed the support of a number of major industrial groups, all of which are long-standing partners of higher education and research.

Award conditions for the Fondation ParisTech MASTERS Aids

The Fondation ParisTech is showing its commitment to nurturing the talents of tomorrow by awarding living expenses aids to students of the following ParisTech Master courses:

- ✓ BioMedical Engineering (BME)
- ✓ Clean and Renewable Energy (CARE)
- ✓ Gestion et traitement des eaux, des sols et des déchets (GTESD)
- ✓ Materials and Engineering Sciences in Paris (MAGIS)

The Fondation ParisTech MASTER aids come up to a total of 4 500 euros per student, for the entire length of the Master course (between 12 and 18 months depending on the Master). Candidates for the Fondation ParisTech Masters aids must meet the following criteria:

- ✓ priority is given to international students;
- ✓ they must provide proof of insufficient financial resources;
- ✓ their academic performance must be of an excellent standard.

Aids selection process (dates subject to change)

The student must send their aid application to the following email address: contact@fondationparistech.org before 31 May 2015

Candidates will be selected in late June 2015 by a jury of members of the Fondation ParisTech, ParisTech and the ParisTech Master Committee. The jury's decision is final.

From July 2015, candidates will be informed of the jury's conclusions:

- ✓ Candidates whose application was unsuccessful will receive a notification letter.
- ✓ Candidates whose application was successful will receive a Fondation ParisTech aid certificate, subject to being accepted onto the course and registering for the ParisTech Master in question.

The aids will be definitively awarded after students have effectively completed the registration process for the ParisTech Master in question.

Aid Management

We deal directly with the aid beneficiary, in coordination with the Manager of the ParisTech Master they are following.

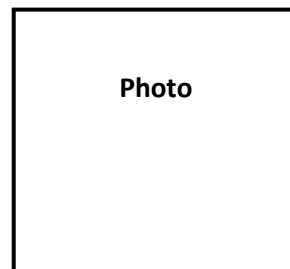

Each aid will be paid in 2 or 3 instalments depending on the length of the Master, at an individual interview conducted by the Fondation ParisTech. The 1st instalment will be paid in October 2015.
